

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There will be a banquet at the Moana Hotel this evening for the Independent Home Rulers.

Miss Clara Mowry is expected to arrive by the morning steamer. Her friends hope to find her improved in health.

Several neat cottages are going up on the big Achi tract at Kalia, and a new road is progressing between King street and the sea.

It is understood that the strike at the Honolulu Iron Works is in the way of settlement, the strikers conceding all points except that they want one foreman discharged.

Last night between twelve and one, the electric lights were shut off, causing the morning newspaper offices, the telephone central and several other places to sit in darkness.

Mrs. R. A. Jordan leaves for Queensland today on the Mowera, to be present at the celebration of her father's nineteenth birthday. The old gentleman resides in Brisbane, and went to Australia as a pioneer of the German Missionary Society, sixty years ago.

Volcano Marshall's unique journal will be born again tomorrow. Marshall says that the volcano will erupt, though an occasional spurt of lava or a shower of rocks will show that its fires are not banked. It is the editor's purpose not to get near enough to the vent to be thrown anywhere himself.

The annual meeting of the vestry of St. Clement's Chapel was held last evening. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Churchwardens, James Wakefield and Herbert Mist; sidesmen, Pierre Jones, Guild, Wheeler, Raymond Spaulding, Blackman and Jacobson; W. H. Baird, treasurer, and L. Ward, secretary. Considerable business was laid before the meeting, to be acted upon at the next meeting of the vestry, on Friday next.

The Merchants' Protective Association met yesterday and discussed a number of matters which had been accumulating. One of them involved a kick against the Inter-Island Steamship Company in not dispatching their vessels on time. A complaint will be drawn up relative to the loss inflicted upon merchants who send dray loads of goods to the wharves, which are often brought back to the warehouses, there being no opportunity to unload. Some drays remain about the wharves for six or eight hours without being able to leave their loads. It is said that this causes the profits to be absorbed in the cartage. The association is in a fair way to get its charter at an early date.

Mr. John Fowler, of London, accompanied by Mr. Turner and Mr. Henry Macfarlane, left on the Mauna Loa yesterday for a visit to the plantations on Hawaii. They will go through the Kau district, thence to Hilo, and take in all the properties in the Hamakua district. Mr. Fowler has not visited Hawaii in twenty years, and is much interested in the progress of the country. He was met in San Francisco by Colonel Macfarlane, and the latter decided to come to Honolulu with him, instead of awaiting the coming of Treasury Agent MacLennan from Washington, with money to pay off the bonded indebtedness of the islands. Mr. Fowler represents the largest manufacturing establishment of machinery in England. He supplied the British army commissary department with its great traction engines for use in the South African campaign, for hauling the supply wagons.

Paralyzed the Passenger.

A Boston street car conductor, being asked by an impatient passenger how long the delay caused by the breaking down of a wagon on the track was likely to last, replied: "That is only a matter of the merest conjecture." The passenger got out quickly and took to the sidewalk.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies, but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. George F. Parsons & Co., druggists, of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd.
